School of Nursing
Department of Health Restoration and Care Systems Management
University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio

Tenured/Tenure Track Faculty Position
Howard & Betty Halff Endowed Professorship in Nursing Excellence for Patient Care

The Search

The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, School of Nursing invites applications and nominations/recommendations for a full-time tenured or tenure track (12 month) faculty position. The School of Nursing, with over 100 faculty and 11,000 professional graduates, offers BSN, MSN, DNP, and PhD programs of study. Our city's health care systems including Baptist, Christus Santa Rosa, Methodist, and University as well as several major military hospital systems provide rich opportunities for collaboration.

Our dynamic faculty is forging partnerships that offer cutting-edge opportunities for collaboration and programming that position us for national recognition. We lead in excellence in nursing leadership through innovative teaching, quality research, compassionate care and community service. Our vision is to become a national model for inter-professional educational excellence that uniquely prepares graduates for the challenges of today’s health system.

As a major academic health science center in South Texas, we offer doctoral nursing degrees: Post-Masters DNP with tracks in Advanced Practice Leadership, Executive Administrative Management and Public Health Leadership, and a PhD as a Clinical Nurse Scientist. We currently offer a traditional Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN), an accelerated second degree BSN program for students who have completed a baccalaureate degree in another field, and an alternate entry option for Associate Degree and Diploma RNs to pursue the MSN degree. At the master’s level, our graduate program prepares students to be nurse practitioners, clinical nurse leaders, and nurse administrators. Our range of baccalaureate, masters and doctoral programs in nursing are well positioned to help train practitioners leaders and educators for careers in nursing – one of the most exciting and rewarding professions of the 21st century.

We particularly encourage applications from individuals with established teaching, research and practice programs in Executive Leadership.

Job Number: N1200-0065
QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will have:

1. An earned doctorate in nursing or a master’s degree in nursing with a doctorate in a related field
2. Eligibility for Texas RN Licensure and/or APRN licensure
3. Qualifications to meet the UTHSCSA SON criteria for appointment to Associate Professor or Professor with tenure or tenure-eligible or tenure track eligible
4. Experience teaching in a graduate program to include both didactic and clinical courses
5. Experience with curriculum development and evaluation at the graduate level
6. Served in a leadership role in an academic nursing program or academic health care institution
7. Demonstrated success in leading or managing groups of faculty or nursing leaders
8. Current or recent practice in clinical nursing, nursing leadership or nursing administration
9. Evidence of a scholarly trajectory

TO APPLY

Applications and nominations/recommendations will be reviewed beginning immediately, and will be accepted until the positions are filled. Applications should include the following:

1. Letter outlining interest and experience
2. Current curriculum vitae
3. Names and contact information for three references; one to these must a recent supervisor. (references will not be contacted without the candidate’s permission)

All inquiries, application materials and nominations/recommendations will be treated in a confidential manner and should be sent, in electronic form, to:

Carole White, Ph.D.
Professor
WhiteC2@uthscsa.edu
University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio
School of Nursing  MSC  7975
7703 Floyd Curl Drive
San Antonio, Texas 78229
website: http://www.uthscsa.edu

All faculty appointments are designated as security sensitive positions.
The University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer including protected veterans and persons with disabilities.

Job Number: N1200-0065