School of Nursing

Department of Family & Community Health Systems

Psychiatric/Mental Health Faculty

The University of Texas Health Science Center School of Nursing, one of five schools in a thriving South Texas Medical Center, is a vibrant growing School, dedicated to serving the South Texas community and beyond. We are committed to excellence in education, research and practice. Research centers such as the Barshop Center for Aging, Cancer Therapy and Research Center, Academic Center for Evidence Based Practice and the Center for Community-Based Health Promotion in Women and Children provide extensive intra- and inter-disciplinary teaching and research opportunities in a multicultural environment. This well established School of Nursing with over 100 faculty and 9,000 professional graduates, offers BSN, MSN, DNP and PhD programs of study. Our city’s health care systems such as Baptist, Christus Santa Rosa, Methodist and University provide rich opportunities for collaboration.

The School of Nursing invites applications for a full or part-time Psychiatric/Mental Health faculty position. Qualifications include Master’s degree in nursing with a specialty in psychiatric/mental health nursing and at least one year of teaching experience at the undergraduate or graduate levels. Preference will be given to persons with a doctoral degree in nursing or related field and certification as a clinical nurse specialist or nurse practitioner. The ideal candidate will have a beginning program of scholarship. Positions to be filled on or before August 31, 2014.

We particularly encourage applications from individuals with established teaching, research and practice programs in the following areas:

- Health Disparities
- Nurse Practitioners (Acute Care, Family, Pediatric, Psych/Mental Health)
- Chronic Disease Management: Diabetes, Genetics, Palliative Care, Cancer Prevention and Management
- Informatics, Health Outcomes, Health Systems Design, Evidence-Based Practice
- Polytrauma/Rehabilitation, Emergency/ Critical Care, and Population Health
