Caring: Honoring the Past, Co-Creating the Present and Envisioning the Future

Marian Turkel, PhD, RN, AHN-BC, FAAN  Dr. Marian C. Turkel is Director Professional Nursing Practice and Research at Einstein Healthcare Network, faculty Watson Caring Science Institute, President of the International Association for Human Caring and a fellow in the American Academy of Nursing. Her scholarship involves integrating caring theory into practice and studying caring within complex organizations. Dr. Turkel recently published Caring Classics in Nursing with Drs Smith and Wolf.

Marlaine Smith, RN, PhD, AHN-BC, FAAN is the Dean and Helen K. Persson Eminent Scholar at Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, Florida. She is known for her work in situating caring within the context of a unitary worldview. Her research has focused on the relationship of caring and healing through the study of outcomes of touch therapies. Dr. Smith is a fellow of the American College of Nursing and received the National League for Nursing's Martha E. Rogers Award for the advancement of nursing science.

Zane Robinson Wolf, PhD, RN, FAAN has taught in various nursing education programs and recently became Dean Emerita at La Salle University in Philadelphia. She is the editor of the International Journal for Human Caring and past president and board member of the International Association for Human Caring. She conducts research on caring, patient safety, and nursing education topics.

No handouts provided for this session.

Notes: