School of Nursing

Department of Family & Community Health Systems
Maternal/Child Nursing Faculty

The School of Nursing at the University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio (UTHSCSA) is one of five schools in a thriving South Texas Medical Center. The School is vibrant, growing, and committed to excellence in education, research and practice. Research centers such as The Children’s Health Advocacy Research and Training Center (CHART), Cancer Therapy and Research Center, Academic Center for Evidence Based Practice and the Center for Community-Based Health Promotion in Women and Children provide extensive intra- and interdisciplinary teaching and research opportunities in a multicultural environment. This well established School of Nursing with over 100 faculty and 9,000 professional graduates, offers BSN, MSN, DNP and PhD programs of study. Our city’s health care systems such as Baptist, Christus Santa Rosa, Methodist and University Health provide rich opportunities for teaching, research, and practice.
